

OMOT 2018

RULES FOR ENTRY FOR LITERARY ART

On My Own Time lets you share your talents in the literary arts. All entries will be published within your in-house program. Winning entries will be published in a Business Council for the Arts program, and those authors will be invited to read their works aloud at Literary Night, which will take place on October 11 at the AT&T Performing Arts Center (details will be circulated by BCA at a later date).

Submission Process

- Visit www.ntbca.org/omot and click on “Artists”. Use the password creativity2018 to access links and other information regarding your OMOT art submissions. Complete a “Literary Artist Entry Form” for each piece you want to submit.
- Artists may submit no more than 3 entries per category.

Classification:

- Each artist must classify his/her submission(s) into one of the following 5 categories:

Visual Art Category	Description
Fictional Short Story	Fictional story of no more than 1000 words.
10-Word Story	Story containing precisely 10 words (punctuation not counted).
Creative Non-Fiction	Non-fictional writing of no more than 1000 words that uses factual information (e.g. essays, biographies, memoirs, etc.).
Open Verse Poetry	Poetry of any style or structure; no more than 500 words
Corporate (or Department) Collaboration	Short story of no more than 1000 words that is written by 3 or more employees.

Eligibility Guidelines

In order to be eligible for jurying and Literary Night, all literary art entries must be:

- The original work of the employee artist. All entries must be the original work of the submitting author and may not contain content copyrighted by another individual or entity.
- The work of an adult artist employee or student of UT Southwestern.
- New to the OMOT program. Works entered in a previous year’s OMOT program are not eligible for the current OMOT program.
- Created “on your own time” and unrelated to work projects.
- Reproduction ready. Each artist must attach a .DOC file of the work to his/her entry form. PDF submissions will not be accepted. Please note that text will be published as is; no editing or spellchecking will be performed. Entries that include complicated formatting may not be replicated in the published programs.
- Content appropriate. Materials containing offensive or discriminatory depictions, nudity, profanity, illegal activities, or negative depictions of social, religious, ethnic, or political groups or individuals will not be considered for Literary Night.
- Free of copyright or other legal restrictions. Literary work under copyright or that violates any legal statutes should not be submitted to On My Own Time.
